

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's partisan use of public airways to promote their own political goals. They should be required to provide equal time to John Kerry to state his real position on things. The movie they plan on showing just before election contains factual errors, and blatant lies. This is not the way the American political system should work.